

Gay Day 2010: Celebrating Marriage for All

---

Saturday, October 2–10am-6pm

Hillwood is thrilled to celebrate the newfound right of hundreds of couples who can now legally marry in DC, with a special wedding-themed Gay Day.

Morning Activities:

- Family Garden Party with Rainbow Families
- Royal Russian Adventures, presented in partnership with Adventure Theatre
  - Breakfast Treats
- Imagination Station (featuring books, games, and fancy dress-up.)
  - A Russian Wedding Crown arts activity
  - Tee Time on the Putting Green

Afternoon Festivities:

- Hillwood and SpeakeasyDC present two sessions of storytelling where real people share personal stories representing a variety of perspectives about what marriage equality means to them.
- A shared community board where guests can share pictures, thoughts, quotes, wedding vows, tips, inspiration, secrets, etc.
- Mrs. Post's wedding dress from her 1958 marriage to Herbert May on view today only—with gallery talks by curator Howard Kurtz
- A wedding reception-style "Punch on the Portico," floral displays, & a reproduction of the gazebo from the Post-May wedding reception
  - An electronic "album" of Post-family weddings
  - Vintage cars exhibited by Straight Eights
  - Square dancing with DC Lambda Squares
- Broadway love songs performed by The Rock Creek Singers of the Gay Men's Chorus of Washington
  - Exclusive peeks into four Mansion rooms not usually open to the public

Special Family Hours 10am-Noon: $12.
No program fee for children under 18.

Noon-6pm: $12, $10 Member, $7 College Student.
No program fee for children under

A Special Thanks to our Sponsors:

Hillwood Estate, Museum & Gardens, 4155 Linnean Avenue, NW, DC 20008 202.686.5807