

Egg

Fedor Rückert, goldsmith (Alsatian active in Russia, 1840-1917)
Moscow, 1899-1908
Silver gilt, enamel (15.52)

While the most famous jeweled Easter eggs were made by Peter Carl Fabergé for Emperors Alexander III and Nicholas II to give as gifts, many wealthy Russians exchanged beautiful eggs created by jewelers and artists at the time this egg was made. Choose your favorite colors and add your own artistic touch to this egg.

Learn more about this work through our online collection.

Please share your finished product on social media!

@HillwoodMuseum
#MuseumFromHome