

Cup from the Order of St. George Service

Gardner Factory (Russian, 1766–present)

Verbilki, Russia, 1700s

Porcelain (25.4.7–8)

HILLWOOD
ESTATE, MUSEUM & GARDENS

Russians used cups like this at feasts honoring knights who were awarded for their bravery. The squirrel on the cup's cover works hard to crack a nut, just as people worked hard to get the award. Color in the cup with your own creative flourishes and designs!

Learn more about this cup through our online collection and our mobile app tour stop 332.

Please share your finished product on social media!

4155 Linnean Avenue, NW | Washington, DC 20008 | HillwoodMuseum.org | 202.686.5807

@HillwoodMuseum
#MuseumFromHome